

Philadelphia Gift Show Product Preview

July 25-28, 2010

As your marketing partner, we want to invite you to take advantage of a FREE PUBLICITY opportunity in our Product Preview Brochure.

To ensure that this piece truly communicates the breadth of quality lines and new resources our show offers, all photography will be reviewed by a jury and those pictures that best meet this criteria will be chosen and featured.

And as an added bonus, all companies that are chosen may receive 500 custom postcards for the Philadelphia Gift Show to invite their customers to the show if they select on the following sheet they would like the cards. These cards will feature the product shot and contact information submitted for the brochure, along with key details about the show and a blank space for you to add even more information about your company.
